TECHNIQUE

THE 1953 EDITION OF

THE TECHNIQUE

Time is a sort of passing events, and strong is its current. No sooner is a thing brought to sight than it is swept by and another takes its place. The radical changes in the Technique this year have taken the place of other sights that have flowed along with time's strong current, and this too will be swept away.

FOREWORD

"Years may pass, but memories are everlasting." With this thought in mind the Technique Staff has tried to bring to you a keyhole view of the full and well-rounded activities which every student enjoys during the years at Tech. Reminiscences of your classmates—class parties—and those funny little jokes that you just couldn't wait to tell—all these, plus countless other things, will bring smiles to your face in years to come.

WE PROUDLY DEDICATE

To an unselfish man who stands ever ready to aid those who call upon him. To a man whose service and self-sacrifice will forever be appreciated by the students. To a man whose love for music is reflected in a better destiny for our school. To this man, Mr. Charles W. White, the Senior Class of 1953, proudly and with heart-felt pleasure, do dedicate this volume of The Technique.

CLASSES

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

2000 A.D. and space ships fill the sky as jet planes did in 1952. It is not unusual to see little men from Mars walking around on Earth, from which every day men leave on trips to other planets. A group of scientists from Mars came to Earth to exchange scientific ideas with our brilliant scientists. They brought along with them a machine called Radaraudiovideoscope through which they had watched us and listened to us. We had always doubted their existence, but all the time they had known everything that we did! The scientists were skeptical of the efficacy of this machine, so the little men produced written proof. One of the many events they had recorded was the history of the Class of '53 at Technical High School. This proved to be very interesting to the scientists, whose doubts began to dim as they began reading the document:

On a sunny September morning a crowd of students were beginning a new year at school. For many of the students it was a day of seeing old friends again, but for the new seventh graders, it was rather a thrilling experience. They were in awe of the upperclassmen and felt very childish beside them, especially the dignified seniors.

That first year was one they would never forget. There were so many new things in their lives at school. There was no more sitting in the same room and listening to the same teacher all day. Now they could grab their books when the bell rang and race for the next class, and that's exactly what they did! They never thought of walking down the halls but ran as if they were going to a fire. The Y-Teens, the G.A.A., and the Howler Club afforded them much enjoyment and gave them an opportunity to use their initiative. Many of these seventh graders were studying hard because they wanted to become members of the newly-organized Junior Honor Society.

The next year was a little more peaceful than the first. The students were accustomed now to changing classes and they did this a little more orderly. There were home room parties and club meetings, and everyone was enjoying school a little more because they now felt that they were a part of it.

The closer they came to their senior year, the happier they were. That year Jewell Thompson was elected president of the ninth grade and Bobby Hubbard was president of the Junior Honor Society. The officers of the Junior Student Council were: DeVon McSwain, president; Jewell Thompson, secretary; and Mary Helen House, treasurer.

At the North Charlotte Y.M.C.A., the ninth grade home rooms had a big party with delicious refreshments, various games, and dancing.

Wallace Fincher, Joe Short, Nancy Brackett, and Charles House were sophomore class officers. Near the close of school, the class had a party near Derita at the lovely house of Bobby Kennerly's uncle.

The sophomores had several paper drives in order to have a little money in the treasury for their junior class activities.

Bobby Brown, Bobby Kennerly, and Johnny Fennell were initiated into the Monogram Club.

The class elected for their Junior officers: President, Bobby Kennerly; vice president, Mary Helen House; secretary, Verta Wentz; and treasurer, Jewell Thompson. Mrs. Kistler, Miss Riggins, and Mr. Hintz were the advisers. The members of the Senior Honor Society elected Jewell Thompson secretary and Bobby Hubbard treasurer. Betty Staton, president of the Forum, went to Chicago for a week as a representative of the Charlotte Y-Teens. Pat Phillips, Nancy Brackett, Betty Upchurch, and Mary Helen House were named senior cheerleaders. Bobby Barrett was elected president of the Library Club.

The Junior Class had great success with their womanless wedding,. talent show, and play, Demon in the Dark. There were several class parties and, of course, the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held at the Woman's Club, with dancing to the music of Billy Knauff's orchestra.

The officers of the Senior Class that were elected were as follows: president, Bobby Kennerly; vice-president, Gene Hartsell; secretary, Mary Griffith; and treasurer, Betty Upchurch. Their advisers were Miss Riggins, Mrs. Kistler, and Mr. Goins.

The Senior play, The Remus and Dandy Show, written by DeVon McSwain and headlined by Gene "In the Book" Hartsell, thrilled the audience.

The Playcrafters Dramatics Club presented a three-act comedy, M'Liss, (My Western Miss), starring Pat Phillips.

John Eaves, Editor-in-Chief of the Howler, was ably assisted by Joyce Martin and Verta Wentz.

The hardest-working person in the Senior Class was Bobby Hubbard, Editor-in-Chief of the TECHNIQUE. Together with J. W. Bowers and Mary Helen House, he endeavored to make the '53 TECHNIQUE the best one ever published.

During the reading, the scientists were astounded by the accuracy of the account, for one of the group had actually been a member of the Class of '53, and he could verify the facts. Consequently, the radaraudiovideoscope was enthusiastically received by the earthly beings.

RESUME OF 1952 SEASON

HARDING 27-0

After practicing three weeks in preparation for the opening game, we faced Harding. A small squad of 27 boys reported for practice and many of these were newcomers to the rank. Being jittery in this, our first game, we never could get our running game going and we played pretty much a defensive game. Standouts in the line were Brazzell, Butler, and Co-Captain Kennerly, while Helms and Carter drew praise for their backfield play.

EAST 8-19

After losing to Harding, the Wolves faced a less formidable opponent. After a mediocre first half, in which we spotted the East Eagles a touchdown and a safety, we roared back in the last half with 19 points. Hartsell, Brown, Kennerly, and Brazzell looked good on the forward wall, while Helms, Moser, and Carter sparked the backfield. Carter took the T.D. honors with 12 points, while Moser scored 6 with White adding P.A.T.

CENTRAL 39-7

With the taste of victory still in our mouths, we took on the Central Wildcats. Again hampered by lack of reserves, we finally gave way to the Wildcats after holding them pretty well the first quarter by marching directly downfield and matching a touchdown with Central. Helms scored from a sneak and White added the P.A.T. After this Central had it much their own way because of excessive manpower. Shining for the forward wall were Brown, Kennerly, Brazzell, Bell, and Hartsell, while Helms, Carter, and Moser were again the standouts in the backfield.

GASTONIA 32-0

Still feeling the sting of our second defeat, we met the Green Wave of Gastonia. The score alone doesn't indicate the kind of game played. We lost three touchdown chances while the Gastons romped for paydirt. We made more first down than the three previous opponents of Gastonia combined but couldn't click when it was needed. Work horses for the backfield were "Honey Boy" Helms, Don Carter, and Watts, while Butler, Joe Fowler, and Brazzell were hustling for the line.

KANNAPOLIS 36-6

If there was one game that we should have "stayed-in-bed" from, this was it. We couldn't gather an ounce of offense and the defense was almost as bad. It was the Kannaps' game all the way. The only scoring we did was a long pass from Helms to Watts in the closing seconds of the game, for we failed in the attempt for extra point.

PARKER 39-10

Going on our first out-of-town trip, we met Parker High of Greenville. Beset by heavy injuries, we fought a stronger AAA foe, who had it pretty much their own way. We couldn't gather any scoring punch except for White's kicking a field goal after we missed the try for a touchdown in the first half. After the half it was pretty much see-saw up and down the field. We scored only once more, with "Honey Boy" hitting Eddie Watts with a beautiful pass and White adding the P.A.T.

NORTH 12-6

After losing four straight, we traveled to Davidson, hoping to cop a victory from an opponent more nearly in our own class. After letting North score twice in the first half, we couldn't muster an offense. After the halftime we settled down but still couldn't crack the touchdown door. Late in the fourth quarter Bill "Bullet" Brawley fell on a blocked kick in the North end zone and scored the lone touchdown we got. Brazzell, Butler, Kennerly, Plumley, and Bell played well for the line, while Helms, Watts, and Hicks paced the backfield.

HANES 27-13

Still in the losing column, but fighting hard, we met Hanes in Winston-Salem. While we were unable to start a touchdown movement in the first half, Hanes made haste and scored 21 points before the gun. After halftime Hanes again scored in the early minutes. We finally mustered an offense and made two long drives downfield for touchdowns, with Helms going over for both scores and White adding P.A.T. Big guns up front were Brazzell, Kennerly, Butler, Plumley, and Bell, while Helms, Watts, and Moser again took the honors for the backs

MYERS PARK 6-14

Our homecoming, being combined with Myers Park, was a very pleasant affair. We began strong by gaining large chunks of yardage and we hit paydirt for 14 points the first half, while the Mustangs could muster little offense. Helms scored on a quarterback sneak in the second quarter for our first, and White added P.A.T. The only other score for us came again in the second quarter when Helms hit White with a pass and White promptly added P.A.T. After the halftime we held them pretty well except for their scoring on a shot pass. Numerous penalties kept us howling at touchdown's door that night. Standouts for the forward wall were Brown, Bell, Hartsell, Brazzell, Joe Fowler, and Butler, while Duncan, Helms, Watts, and Ken Fowler held the backfield down.

WEST 0-18

With but two days' practice under our belts and two wins, we traversed by way of the Blue Beetle to Richards' Field to meet the West High Indians on Wednesday night. With an offense that ran hot till we got to the goal line, we pushed over only 6 points in the first half. With our running game picking up big chunks of yardage, we scored two in the third quarter to put it on ice and to hold the Indians very well. "Ace" Plumley, Hartsell, Kennerly, Brown, Brazzell, Butler, and White shone for the line, while Helms, Moser, and Hicks sparkled for the backfield. Moser led the T.D. honors with two while Helms made one.

MT. AIRY 33-14

Going into the last game of the season with two straight wins, we faced Mt. Airy on November 17. This being the last game for some of us, we were trying to end the season with a win. Mt. Airy had other plans and, with unerring accuracy, passed for most of their yardage and touchdowns. It was only after the half that we got rolling and scored two touchdowns via passes from "Honey Boy" Helms to White for the first and another to Fred Mullis, who was the only unanimous choice from Tech for a first string berth on the All-City Squad. Standouts in the line were Hartsell, Kennerly, Brazzell, and Mullis. Doing as well for the backfield were Helms, Watts, Hicks, and Moser.

SENIOR CLASS

It has been many moons since the class of 1952 were graduated from their beloved old Alma Mater, Tech High School.

As we sit here watching our radar set we see our dear classmates and the work they are accomplishing since they left Tech.

First, we see Bobby Barrett and Verta Wentz shopping around Mars' five-and-ten store in their rocket 88. As they whiz by, they wave to Joe Fowler, Benny Black, and Dan Linder, who run a shoe store on the corner of Pluto and Jupiter Avenues. Don't look now—but here come Barbara Starnes and Jerry Stevens to buy themselves two pairs of tap shoes. They have been appearing nightly at the Venue Theater, which is owned by Carolyn Martin and Pat Lindsay. These theatrical owners run up against much competition, because of the Dark Skin Show owned and directed by Barbara Bell, DeVon McSwain, and Mary Helen House. Some of the main characters of the Dark Skin Show are Jerry Tino, Shirley House, Donald Black, and Betty Staton. As our radar set moves on along Neptune Street, we see an "out of this world" hot-dog stand operated by those little men from Mars, Charles Turner and David Ross; their steady customers are Jimmy Simpson and Connie Canupp, and from what we have heard the delectable dogs are really out of this world.

The next things which come into view are Bobby Brown and John Eaves, coaching football at Jupiter University. Their most valuable players are Johnny Fennell, Gene Mills, and Layton Duncan.

Wow! What a big noise! It couldn't be anyone else but Gloria Bradley in her 1966 Mercury jet-propelled hot rod. Who was that screaming? None other than her old buddies—Betty Hoard, Shirley (Lizzie) Johnson, and Esther Suddreth.

baseball coach, whose most down-to-earth player is Don Bradey.

Now we see a beautiful ranch located 3,188 days from the sun. This beautiful place is owned by Pat Phillips. Some of the cowhands are Richard Rowe, Gary Williams, and Ray Stegall. We also see those two famous western singers—Richard Tatum and Mack Rush—screnading some of the cowgirls, who are Pat Belk, Jo Ann Williams, Geraldine Gordon, and Bernice Harrelson.

Wait a minute, folks! Here comes that "Twin Sister of the Earth," Sue Helms, and her Orbit Circus, with Gene Hartsell doing the barking. Included in her show are J. W. Bowers, who is a hula dancer, and his "side kick," Jewell Thompson. Also in this great circus are the famous Rocketts—Joyce Martin, Betty Stevens, Geraldine Helms, Shirley Dulin, and Gene James.

Now coming into our line of vision is the biggest, most modern textile mill with its big boss, Donald Nelson. His most capable employees are Jimmy Flowe, Bailey Harris and Freddie Murray.

Jean Edwards is now raising Wade Jrs. on his chicken farm. The next classmates that come into view on our radar set are John Ellington, Phyllis Yates, and Jimmy Brady, who have invented a new device for doing home work more quickly.

Now our radar set takes us to Hill Top Tavern, owned by Bobby Hubbard; his favorite customers are Donald Hilton, Robert Patterson and Ken Robinson.

Our last look at the class of 1953 would not be complete without taking a last look at those three wonderful advisers—Mr. Goins, Miss Riggins, and Mrs. Kistler—who still occupy their same old rooms and keep pouring on homework to the students of Dear Old Tech High School.

LAST WILL AND

State of North Carolina
County of Mecklenburg
City of Charlotte

Charlotte Technical High School

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred fifty-three of Charlotte Technical High School, being of sound mind, do hereby make our last will and testament.

Article I

To Tech High School, we leave our appreciation for giving us a good education.

To the teachers, we leave also our thanks for the many times that they have not flipped their lids when we erred.

Article II

To our wonderful advisers—Mrs. Kistler, Miss Riggins, and Mr. Goins—we wish to say thanks for everything; we couldn't have done without them.

Article III

To the Juniors, we leave our dignified ways and hope that they can be good Seniors! To the Sophomores, we leave hopes that they will not try to be Seniors too soon. To the Freshmen, we want to give the advice that they study now so it will be easier in the Senior year. And to all the others we leave the hope that they will soon become Seniors.

Article IV

The Seniors, having no more need of the following possessions, will them to the needy Juniors.

Bobby Kennerly leaves the presidency of the Senior Class to Maxie Moser and his position as co-captain of the football team to Ronald Brazzell. Bobby Hubbard leaves his cheerleader post to Nancy Springs. Betty Hoard bequeaths her quietness to Carolyn Litaker. Shirley Johnson leaves her dignity to Linda Hughes and her straight face to Phyllis Ellsworth. Richard Rowe leaves his love for the library to Bob Riley. To Danny Collins, J. W. Bowers leaves his bashfulness and to Bill Brawley he leaves his love for Staton.

To Delrie Rice, Jean Edwards leaves her title as the "prettiest" in the Senior Class. Jimmy Flow leaves his shop table and tools to Bobby Lovelace. Nancy Brackett Bradey leaves her persistence to Edna Dayberry. Charles Turner leaves his size to Bobby Plumley. Gene Hartsell leaves to Jimmy Bookout his ability to make A's under Mr. Goins. Jimmy Simpson bequeaths his cuteness to Bobby Short. Johnny Fennell leaves his stardom on the football team to Don Carter. John Ellington leaves his studious ways to Fred Mullis and his ability to snow girls to Johnny Goomis. Bobbie Dean King leaves her vacancy in the Senior Class to Jerry Suddreth. Sue Helms leaves her wonderful disposition to Sandra Leake and her size to Sue Cadieu. Don Bradey's stardom in baseball is left to Roy Warren and his title of Mr. Tech to John Sykes. Dan Linder bequeaths his position as president of the D. E. Club to Lee Tucker and his studious ways to Jimmy Conder. Mack Rush leaves his position as president of the Senior Student Council to Helen James and his melodious voice to Gene Lockey. Mary Griffith bequeaths her sweetness and her charming manner to Carolyn Maxwell. Donald Hilton's noise is left to Frank Thornton and Louise Love.

Sue Ann Ezell and her good grades to Kenneth Conder. Geraldine Gordon bequeaths her engagement ring to Esther Morse and Sue Chance. To Mary Beth Schulken, Barbara Bell leaves her willingness to work for the Senior Class. Richard Tatum leaves his deep voice to Bill Phifer. Jerry Tino leaves his sleepiness in Mr. Goins' room to Wade Parker. To Hubert McClure and Keith Childers, Gary Williams leaves his pretty hair. Bernice Harrelson leaves all her attractive clothes to Helen Griggs. Betty Jo Upchurch bequeaths all her charm to Joy Warren and her title as Miss Tech to Faye Yandle. Gene Mills leaves his football position to Ken Fowler. Carolyn Martin leaves her philanthropy to Betty Jean Turner. David Ross leaves to John Young his "silliness." Bobby Barrett bequeaths his wavy hair and winning smile to Parks Helms. To William Howie, Jimmy Brady leaves his pleasing Physics grades. Gene James leaves his place in the Senior Class to Bobby Smith. To Jackie Griffin, DeVon McSwain bequeaths his playwright ability, hoping that she will someday become as successful as he. Bailey Harris leaves his interest in cars to Harry McCoy. To Cary Grier, Jerry Stevens leaves his dancing ability. Robert Patterson leaves his ability to draw to James Chaney and his ability to make A's to Alton Butler.

Freddie Murray leaves his size to Jack Burnette. Verta Lee Wentz leaves her title as "friendliest" to Delores Wofford. Mary Helen House leaves her popularity and her sweet ways to Bobby Bell. Layton Duncan leaves his place on the basketball team to James Parris. Connie Canupp's shorthand grades are left to Jean Smith. Betty Stevens leaves her ability to get along well with others to Dickie Ratcliffe. Joann Williams bequeaths her cuteness to Jean Clayton. Betty Joan Staton leaves her working shoes to Kathryn Wright, and her ability to get boys is left to Betty Miller. Jewell Thompson leaves her A's to Ann Bowlin.

Joyce Martin bequeaths her shorthand book to Polly Ann Glenn. Esther Suddreth's love for the library is left to Wayne Caskey. Don Nelson leaves his insight to Ann Montgomery. John Eaves leaves his place as Editor of the Howler to Delores Holtzclaw. Benny Black leaves his muscles to Roy Stollery. Ken Robinson leaves his willingness to work to Richard Chance. Joe Fowler leaves his ability to make noise to Charles Stinson and James Nixon. Bobby Brown's meanness is left to Bobby Moser. Shirley Dulin leaves her clothes to Betty Jo Harper. Pat Phillips' loveliness is left to Calvin Baker. Shirley House leaves her hair curlers to Barbara Winchester. Geraldine Helms bequeaths her love for Miss Riggins to Robert Cox. The studiousness of Barbara Starnes and Ann Huffstetler is left to Franklin Robinson. To Horace Armstrong, Roy Stegall leaves his cherished place in the Senior Class. Don Black leaves his leading role in the Senior Play to Robert Helms. Pat Belk and Pat Lindsay leave their willingness to get their homework to Gene Helms and Carl Guest.

We, the Senior Class of Charlotte Technical High School, do sign and seal this, the fifth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-two.
